House-sized space & privacy with low maintenance ease

Light, space and privacy are always important when considering a property and this freshly presented townhouse overdelivers, along with a spacious and private outdoor area for entertaining. Quietly positioned in a quality complex, it offers a well-appointed home with a bright, breezy layout and a quiet street position that's walking distance to the heart of Mount Druitt.

A spacious four-bedroom layout features recently tiled living and dining areas, a modern gas kitchen plus an easy level flow to the outside. A large covered patio is perfect for entertaining, plus there is a small grassed garden along with a lock-up garage and single carport and visitors parking too.

The four upstairs bedrooms each have built-in wardrobes and include a large main with walk-in robe and ensuite.
